By-Laws

a. Membership dues are due and payable on the first (1st) day of the month, in the minimum monthly amount (as prorated based on annual membership dues). However, billing for membership dues will only be sent to the membership monthly, quarterly and thus annual or quarterly payment of membership dues is recommended and encouraged to prevent dues from becoming delinquent. It shall be the responsibility of each member to ensure their membership dues are timely paid and current.

Membership dues shall be delinquent fifteen (15) days following the date the membership dues become due and payable, as outlined herein, and a delinquency charge of Sixteen Dollars and 50/100 ($16.50) shall then be assessed to the member. d. When a member's membership dues are not paid within sixty (60) days following the date the membership dues become due and payable, as established herein, including payment of all delinquency charges, the member's membership shall terminate.

i. A certificate member, whose membership is terminated for reasons stated above, shall continue to have the member's account assessed with monthly membership dues and delinquency charges after the date of termination. When the outstanding account balance of the certificate member equals or exceeds Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), the Board shall cancel the certificate with the certificate being effectively redeemed by the Club and available for reissue. At any time prior to a certificate member's certificate being cancelled and redeemed by the Club, the certificate member shall be entitled to pay all accrued membership dues and delinquency charges and upon such payment their certificate membership shall be reinstated.

ii. A playing member whose membership is terminated or a certificate member whose membership is terminated, and certificate cancelled and redeemed, by reason of sixty (60) days delinquency as outlined above, shall be subject to the following conditions:

ii. A certificate member terminating their membership by written notification, as stated above, shall be subject to the following conditions:

At any time prior to a certificate member’s certificate being cancelled and redeemed by the Club, the certificate member shall be entitled to pay the account balance and reinstate their certificate membership.
